

and many Arbitrary and illegal Proceedings there, within these Four Years last past as well since the Dissolution of the late Parliament, with all Duty to Your Majesty, and Tendments for the Preservation of the Peace, and Welfare of the Kingdom, humbly presented to His MAJESTY the 9th of this Instant March, 1692.

With His MAJESTIES Gracious Answer.

It is Ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, That the Address Presented yesterday to His Majesty, and His Majesties Gracious Answer thereunto, shall be forthwith Printed and Published.
Math. Johnson Cler. Parliamentor
Die Sabbati 4^o Martii, 1692

Whereas the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, having received Information upon Oath, from several Persons of good Credit and Reputation of the Kingdom of Great Brittain, in the Preservation of whose Rights, Liberties, and Properties, this Kingdom must be always very nearly concerned, Of exorbitant Abuses, great Mismanagement, and many Arbitrary and Illegal Proceedings there, within these Four Years last past, as well since the Determination of the War as before, Do, with all Duty to Your Majesty, and Tenderness for the Preservation of the Peace, and Welfare of both Kingdoms, humbly represent to Your Majesty these Particulars following.

I. That the Revenues of the Estates Forfeited to Your Majesty have not been duly accounted for, nor apply'd to the Publick Use.

II. That of the Product of the Personal Estates Forfeited to Your Majesty, which were Valued at 135000 l. there has not been 10000 l. brought to Your Majesties Account.

III. That there have been Great and Notorious Imbezilements of the Stores.

IV. That the Quarters of the Soldiers have not been paid, notwithstanding there hath been Deductions out of their Pay for the same, and notwithstanding the Supply that was given in Parliament for that purpose.

V. That the Usual and Ancient Methods of the Exchequer have not been of late Observed.

VI. That there hath been too much Encouragement given to Papists, and particularly by giving Protection to the Irish against just Debt owing to the English, and to such Persons were not under the strictest Intestigation merick, while poor Protestants were left be prosecuted by the Irish.

VII. That the present Lord Mayor of Dublin has been Imposed upon that City Two Years together, contrary to their Ancient Rights and Privileges.

VIII. That one Gafney, and several others;
were Executed without any Tryal whatsoever;
and that one Sweetman (who was equally
Charged with the same Crime, for which the
others suffered) has not been prosecuted for it.

All which Grievances and Miscarriges,
We here lay before Your Majesty, desiring
that the same may be taken into Your most Serious Consideration, as Matters, that necessarily require the most speedy and effectual Remedy; for which We pray Your Majesty to give such Directions, and to use such Means, as to Your Majesty, in Your Justice, shall seem most proper and expedient, whereby Your Majesty's Subjects
may be Relieved from the great Oppressions they lye under, and that Kingdom Set-led and Governed according to Law.

TH E Speaker Reported His Majesty's
Gracious Answer to the Address Presented
yesterday; which was,

You may be sure, That whatever may have been Amiss, all possible Care shall be taken to Remedy it.

which were
be protected by the
VII. That the present Lord Mayor of Dublin
has been punished upon that City's Rights
together, contrary to their Ancient Rights

VIII. That the Gentry, and several others were executed without any Trial and Justice;
and that one Sweetman (who was equally
charged with the same crime, for which the
others suffered) has not been prosecuted for it.

All which Grievances and Malignities,
We here lay before Your Majesty, desiring
that the same may be taken into Your most Serious Consideration, as Matters, that necessarily require the most speedy and effectual Remedy; which We pray Your Majesty to give such Directions, and to use
such Means, as to Your Majesty, in Your
Justice, shall seem most proper and expe-
dient, whereby Your Majesty's Subjects
may be relieved from the great Oppressions they lie under, and that Kingdom set-
led and governed according to Law.

THAT Speaker Reported His Majesty's
Gracious Answer to the Address Presented
yesterday; which was
You may be sure, That whatever may have been said, all possible Care shall
be taken to remedy it.